

2nd Day (Saturday): Dia de l'Entrada (Parade Day)

From the first third of the twentieth century, the acts of the party start the morning with rising of flags, singing the Bocairant Anthem and presentation of the music bands that will follow the filaes along the "Fiesta"

In the afternoon, the memory of the Aragonese troops of King James I, under the leading of the Knight Oriz, entered the town moor of Bekirent in 1245, returns to be realized to applause from the crowd.

The five Christian filaes and the four moors filaes blackberries parade through the streets with flags, banners, mounts and slaves, trappings of captains, the rhythm of lively music the first and the beating of drums and dulzainas.
